Dear Mr. Weisberg,

Your response to my letter about the Zapruder film was amazing. Poorly-written for an author, its tone was one of contempt for the uninitiated.

It goes on to make snide comments about the exploitation of the campus mentality, yet it includes promos and order forms for your books.

I suggest that the next time you answer an honest inquiry you at least enclose it in a carpetbag. Thank you.

Sincerely,

Richard Rynen
